American Integrity window & door products are guaranteed against defects in materials or workmanship, including parts and labor, to the original purchaser/homeowner subject to the following terms and conditions:

American Integrity products installed on a vertical-plane and according to AAMA approved installation procedures, or as a replacement product in an existing single family residence per accepted industry standards, will be repaired or replaced at no cost to the original purchaser/homeowner if found to be defective in materials or workmanship. Proof of purchase or ownership must be provided to receive this service.

American Integrity reserves the right to repair or furnish a replacement component or a substitute if a product or component is discontinued or otherwise not available. If a suitable replacement is not available, American Integrity will refund the original purchase price of the product.

This warranty coverage, as outlined above, will be assignable to subsequent owner(s) for a period not to exceed 5 years from original delivery date of finished products.

Window and door products must be cleaned periodically with mild soap and water, and weep holes should be kept clear of stucco or other debris.

Exclusions ~ Glass breakage or other damage to the product caused by impact of foreign objects, acts of God, fire, explosion or other casualty, structural settlement, vibration, excessive heat or moisture, incorrect use, abuse, neglect, negligence, vandalism, of supplied components such as films, tints or applied paint finishes, natural weathering of exterior finishes or effects related to corrosive environments.

American Integrity will not be responsible for problems pertaining to barrier EIFS or any construction system that does not properly address moisture content within the wall.

The duration of any implied warranties, including the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose are limited to the express warranties herein. American Integrity hereby excludes incidental and consequential damages, including loss of time, inconvenience, or loss of use of residence for any breach of any express or implied warranty.

Some states do not allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts, or the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above exclusion or limitation may not apply to you.
